

Yoshinogawa, Tokushima

6 “Shikoku Saburo” Yoshino River, an Eternal River Sprawling Before Your Eyes

Winding through the Tokushima Plains and mountains, seemingly rushing toward you, is the Yoshino River, the largest river in Shikoku and one of the three most rampaging rivers in Japan, which is also referred to as “Shikoku Saburo”. The high vantage point gives you the potential for some incredible panoramic views of the Yoshino River.
