A Magical Landscape Woven by Nature Double Diamond Sanuki Fuji

The sun rising over the summit of the Fuji of Sanuki (Mt. Iino) glitters on the surface of Miyaike Pond, where the mountain is reflected as two shimmering diamonds. People from all over Japan rush here to photograph this natural work of art, visible only on clear days for about five minutes in the early morning on a handful of dates in mid-April and late August. For a limited time, you can also enjoy tea along the shore of Miyaike Pond.
